
A possible c[illegible] between [illegible] mer leader of a Cuban liberation group, also popped up.

New Orleans police said they stopped two young men in a car on Aug. 30, 1963, and found in the auto a pistol and make-up kit with a wig.

WHEN POLICE voiced suspicion, the youths took them to the home of Sergio Arcacha, so he could vouch for them.

Arcachia's wife told police Ferrie had been at the house a short time earlier, and the pistol and kit belonged to him.
The youths were released.

Agents from Garrison's office sought to question Arcachia over the weekend in Dallas. Arcachia insisted that Dallas detectives sit in on the interrogation and the questioning was delayed.

Status Item 2/27/67